RE: REDUCTION IN 417 LEAGUE SANCTION

The Organizational By-law of the 417 League requires that a Player incurring a Fight, Instigator or Aggressor, Gross Misconduct, Match or three Game Misconduct penalties shall withdraw from further play in the League, subject to review and the imposition of a sanction by the League. That sanction may include the player's withdrawal from the League for the season or seasons or for a number of games, the player's execution of a probation letter, or a combination thereof. This sanction is in addition to the suspensions imposed by the ODMHA Code of Discipline.

The above Player has been suspended in accordance with the ODMHA Code of Discipline, and has obtained the consent of the Coach of his Juvenile Hockey Team and the President of his Association to request a reduction in the sanction that may be imposed by the 417 League under its By-law.

The Coach and the Association confirm that the discipline history of the Player, including any fights, misconducts, game misconducts, gross misconducts, match penalties, and any incident or behaviour detrimental to hockey that the Player has committed while playing in the 417 League have been reviewed by the Coach and the Association, and the Association, the Coach and the Player request that the Player be permitted to complete the season on probation.

The 417 League has agreed to require the Player to sign this probation letter and not to impose any further sanction, on the following conditions:

- in the event that the Player receives another suspension under the ODMHA Code of Discipline, the Player shall withdraw immediately from the 417 League pending a review of the Player's conduct,
- the Player may then be removed from the 417 League for a number of games, for the season or for a number of seasons in the sole discretion of the 417 League, and shall remain on probation for the duration of the Player's eligibility to play in the 417 League, and
- the Player, his Coach and the Association President agree to these conditions and agree that any sanction imposed in the future shall not be appealed.

RE: REGISTRATION OF PLAYER SUBJECT TO PROBATION

The above Player, who is on probation from the previous season or who has a history of disciplinary problems from a previous season, has obtained the consent of the Coach of his Juvenile Hockey Team and of the President of his Association to register as a player in the 417 Midget Juvenile Hockey League.

The Coach and the Association confirm that the discipline history of the Player from the preceding season, including any fights, misconducts, game misconducts, gross misconducts, match penalties, and any incident or behaviour detrimental to hockey that the Player has committed while playing minor hockey have been reviewed by the Coach and the Association, and the Association, the Coach and the Player request that the Player be permitted to register to play in the 417 League, and to complete the season on probation.

The 417 League has agreed to require the Player to sign this probation letter and not to impose any further sanction, on the following conditions:

- in the event that the Player receives a suspension under the ODMHA Code of Discipline, the Player shall withdraw immediately from the 417 League pending a review of the Player's conduct,
- the Player may then be removed from the 417 League for a number of games, for the season or for a number of seasons in the sole discretion of the 417 League, and shall remain on probation for the duration of the Player's eligibility to play in the 417 League, and
- the Player, his Coach and the Association President agree to these conditions and agree that any sanction imposed in the future shall not be appealed.

RE: REDUCTION IN 417 LEAGUE SANCTION

The Organizational By-law of the 417 League requires that a member of a Team's Coaching Staff who obtains a suspension shall withdraw from further play in the League, subject to review and the imposition of a sanction by the League. That sanction may include that person's withdrawal from the League for the season or seasons or for a number of games, his or her execution of a probation letter, or a combination thereof. This sanction is in addition to the suspensions imposed by the ODMHA Code of Discipline.

The above member of the Team's Coaching Staff has been suspended in accordance with the ODMHA Code of Discipline, and has obtained the consent of the Coach of his Juvenile Hockey Team (except where the person suspended is the Coach) and the President of his Association to request a reduction in the sanction that may be imposed by the 417 League under its By-law.

The Coach (except where the person suspended is the Coach) and the Association confirm that the discipline history of the suspended person, including any bench minor penalties, game misconducts, gross misconducts, and any incident or behaviour detrimental to hockey that the person has committed while a member of the Coaching Staff in the 417 League have been reviewed by the Coach (except where the person suspended is the Coach) and the Association, and the Association, the Coach (except where the person suspended is the Coach) and the person him- or herself request that he or she be permitted to complete the season on probation.

The 417 League has agreed to require the Player to sign this probation letter and not to impose any further sanction, on the following conditions:

- in the event that the person receives another suspension under the ODMHA Code of Discipline, the person shall withdraw immediately from the 417 League pending a review of the person's conduct,
- the person may then be removed from the 417 League for a number of games, for the season or for a number of seasons in the sole discretion of the 417 League, and
- the person, the Coach (except where the person suspended is the Coach) and the Association President agree to these conditions and agree that any sanction imposed in the future shall not be appealed.
